

Our Great May Sale of Ribbons Begins this Week.

We have made special preparations for this great Ribbon event. At the prices they are reduced to, most every one will come after Ribbons. In addition to marking down those already here, a bright new lot of Silk Ribbons will go in the sale. In all the wanted shades and widths, prettier and brighter than any you have ever seen.

Ribbons are to be worn more than ever in the feminine world this season. In the hair, at the back of the neck, corsage bows, knotted sashes and for many other purposes. We have anticipated the demand, and from now on HORSE KILLED.—The Paris interurban car, which left here at 10 o'clock Sunday night, killed a horse about eight miles from Lexington. The horse, it is said, was in a ditch between the track and a stone wall, and when the motorman saw him he tried to stop the car, but the animal backed straight across the track and was instantly killed.

DEATHS.

—Mrs. Eliza Bell McChesney, wife of the Hon. F. L. McChesney, aged 66 years, was stricken with paralysis of the heart while on her way to attend the conferring of the Cross of Honor on a number of Confederates at the Christian Church on Tuesday night and died a short time afterwards. She is survived by her husband and one child, Mr. James R. McChesney, of Louisville.

Mrs. McChesney was a daughter of the late Green Remington, of Cynthiana, and moved to Paris with her husband about 36 years ago. She leaves three sisters—Mrs. J. S. Withers, Mrs. Elizabeth Smith and Mrs. Dedman, of Cynthiana, and one brother, Mr. B. F. Remington, of this city. She had been an invalid for years and bore her suffering with Christian fortitude. She was of a jovial nature and always seemed cheerful, when, at the same time, she was suffering physical pain. Her funeral was held at the Second Presbyterian Church, of which she was a consistent member, yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial in Paris cemetery. The pall-bearers were: A. W. Cottingham, Ossian Edwards, Jas. C. Dedman, Geo. R. Bell, Capt. J. M. Thomas, William Howard, Wm. Remington and Jos. W. Davis.

—Mr. John T. Gay, one of the most prominent farmers of Woodford county, died at his home, near Pisgah church, Tuesday morning at 5:30 o'clock. Mr. Gay had been ill about two weeks and his death resulted from blood poison caused from gall stone. He was aged 80 years, and an uncle of Mrs. Newton Mitchell, of this city.

—Word was received here Wednesday night of the death in Cynthiana of Mr. J. Levi Patterson, a prominent and wealthy citizen of Harrison county. Mr. Patterson was seventy-five years old and leaves five children. His children are Dr. Joe Patterson, of Kansas City; Dr. D. C. Patterson, of Cynthiana; Dr. James Patterson, of Dallas, Texas; William Patterson, druggist of Kansas City, and Mrs. John Thompson, of Bourbon. He was stepfather of Mrs. Newt. Clark, of this city.

CUPID'S ARROW.

—The marriage of Miss Mona Smith, one of Scott county's prominent society girls, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Smith, to Mr. Will Ferguson, of Bourbon county, will take place at the Christian church, Georgetown, June 22nd at 4 o'clock. Miss Mary Herndon will be maid of honor. Misses Nannie Finley, Nell Nunnally, of Georgetown, and Miss Clay Croxton, of Winchester, will be other bridesmaids.

—Mr. John Blake and Miss Katie Ahern, both of this city, were married at Winchester, on Thursday, May 26th, by nuptial high mass, Rev. Father Ryan officiating. Miss Ahern was one of the accommodating and pleasant operators of the East Tennessee Telephone Co., a bright and attractive young lady. Mr. Blake is a popular employee of the L. & N. R. R.

—On June 23, at the home of Mrs. J. Walker Muir, Bourbon county, Miss Junie Mae Turner, of Mt. Sterling, will be married to Mr. Roscoe Gordon Williams, of New York City. Miss Turner is one of Montgomery county's bright and handsome young women and Mr. Williams may count himself fortunate to have won the prize. Mr. Williams is associated with the Erie Railroad Co. Their home will be in Orange, New Jersey.

—Mr. Henry McGinley and Miss Winnie Welsh were quietly married at the Catholic church, in this city, on Wednesday morning, at 6:30 o'clock, by Rev. Father E. A. Burke. The contracting parties kept their secret well as the wedding was quite a surprise to their most intimate friends. Miss Welsh is a fine looking and most estimable young lady, and Mr. McGinley is the daring and popular driver of the Paris Fire Department. The couple has many friends who will join us in wishing them a long and happy married life.

—The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Mannen Turney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Turney, and Mr. Roberts A. Winn, of Mt. Sterling, was celebrated Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the country home of the bride's parents. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. E. H. Rutherford, and only the members of the family were present. There was an elegant lunch served after the ceremony. The bride was gowned in white French imported net over white silk. The couple drove through to Mt. Sterling, their future home.
